- I. Students are required to read and familiarize themselves with the online 2009-10 TCCA Student Handbook and be prepared for a test on the content upon the commencement of the 2010-11 academic year.

- II. Freshmen and sophomores are required to read Charles Dickens's Oliver Twist while the juniors and seniors are required to read A Tale of Two Cities. In both instances, students are to be prepared to take an examination on the subject reading upon their return to school in September. This assignment will be a part of the required English course for the 2010-11 academic year.

*Students' reading progress should adhere to the following schedule:

	Oliver	Two Cities
Week of July 4 th	Chapters 1-6	Chapters 1-5
Week of July 11 th	Chapters 7-12	Chapters 6-10
Week of July 18 th	Chapters 13-18	Chapters 11-15
Week of July 25 th	Chapters 19-24	Chapters 16-20
Week of August 1 st	Chapters 25-30	Chapters 21-25
Week of August 8 th	Chapters 31-36	Chapters 26-30
Week of August 15 th	Chapters 37-42	Chapters 31-35
Week of August 22 nd	Chapters 43-48	Chapters 36-40
Week of August 29 th	Chapters 49-53	Chapters 41-45

Note: Students should be advised that during the conduct of the admissions interviews, it is probable admissions committee members will specifically inquire about a student's progress in the assigned book. This will obviously have some bearing on the committee's admission decisions.
